

Laurie A. Lally

llally@camden.rutgers.edu

Professional Profile

Online music educator with a unique combination of education experience coupled with twenty years of private study and teaching in the music field.

- Masters Degree in Music Education
- Bachelors Degree in Music Theory.
- Experienced in creating online courses for major universities.
- Experienced in use of the Internet and music education software.
- Dedicated to enthusiastic and dynamic teaching as a means of creating and nurturing a lifelong love of music.

Education

Boston University, Boston, MA. 2009
M.A. in Music Education

Rutgers University, Camden, NJ. 1993
B. A. in Music Theory, cum laude
Member, Athenaeum Honor Society

Camden County College, Blackwood, NJ. 1990
A.A. Liberal Arts
Permanent President's List Award; Scholarship recipient

Private Studies

Marcel Farago – Cellist/Composer – Philadelphia Orchestra
Studies included piano, theory, composition, orchestration and cello
1989 – 2006

Teaching Technology Expertise

Designing and instructing online music courses for graduate and undergraduate studies at major universities with teaching, collaboration, and music software systems including:

- Sakai
- Blackboard
- eCollege and eCourse
- Elluminate
- Wimba
- Sibelius
- Auralia
- Finale

Experience

Rutgers University—Camden

Adjunct Professor, 2007-present

Online Courses developed and taught include:

- American Music in the 1960s
- Rock and Roll
- Latin American Music
- American Contemporary Composers
- Intro to Music Theory
- African Influences on American Music

Classroom courses taught include:

- Jazz/Rock/Folk/Pop
- Intro to Music Theory
- Applied Music

St. John's Catholic School, Collingswood, NJ

Fourth Grade Teacher/Music Director 2001 - 2007

Old Orchard Methodist Church, Cherry Hill, NJ

Choir Director 2006 – 2007

Westmont United Methodist Church, Westmont, NJ

Director of Music Ministries/Choral Director 2005 – 2007

Kingsway Learning Center, Haddonfield, NJ

Music Teacher 2003 – 2005

Summer Music Program for Special Needs

Preschool Preludes

Executive Director/Founder, 2003 – 2005

Offering music programs to Preschool's in the South Jersey area.

Joyful Noise Foundation

Founder/Director, 1999 - 2001

An organization for children and the arts; Youth orchestra, Children and Adult Choirs, Special Needs programs

Private Music Instructor 1990 – present

Professional Affiliations

US Marine Corps, 1985 – 1987. ServCo, HqBn, 1stMarDiv. CamPen, Ca.

Discharge: Honorable

Awards: Letter of Appreciation; Meritorious Mast.

Haddonfield Oratorio Choir, NJ

Vocalist – Tenor

CASA of Camden County, NJ

Court Appointed Special Advocate